----------Part 1----------

You wake up curled up next to you mother, Daisybloom. Your two siblings, Briarkit and Skykit, haven't opened their eyes yet."Look! Y/N open his/her eyes!" Earthstone exclaimed. "And look! Skykit and Briarkit are too!" Said Daisybloom, loud enough for part of the clan near the nursery to hear, and then three or four warriors padded over."Congrats, Daisybloom!" Said Rattlevine with a smile. "Your kits are going to be strong warriors one day." Said Redfoot. After they congratulated her, you, and your siblings immediately started mewling for milk

Your mother walks over to you and starts cleaning you. After your all clean, Sunstar calls a clan meeting. "Let all cats old enough to catch your own prey join here beneath the Tall Rock for a clan meeting!" Sunstar yowled out."Today is one of my favourite days. Because Y/N, Briarkit, and Skykit have reached the age of six moons!" The clan cheered. "Skykit, come forward." Skykit did as he was told and came forward. "Skykit, do you swear to uphold the warrior code with your life?" Sunstar's voice rung throughout the clearing, "I do," Skykit squeaked trying to stand tall, "Than by the powers of Starclan I give you your apprentice name, Skypaw! Your mentor will be Onefoot.I hope she passes all she knows onto you. Onefoot, you are a clever and smart warrior, you can use your small body against your enemies. ----------Part 3----------

Your mother comes up to you and starts to clean you. Then you said "Go away!! I don't need you to clean me!! I can clean myself, thank you very much." You added sarcastically. Daisybloom looked hurt. You snorted."Let all cats old enough to catch your own prey join here for a clan meeting." Sunstar yowled out. Today is one of my favourite days, because Y/N, Briarkit, and Skykit have reached the age of six moons! Skykit come forward." Skykit did as he was told and came forward. "Skypaw do you swear to uphold the warrior code even at the cost of your life?" Sunstar's voice rang throughout the clearing. "I do." Skykit squeaked. "Then from this moment on, until you earn your warrior name, you will be know as Skypaw! Your mentor will be Onefoot. I hop she will pass on all she knows onto you. Onefoot you are a clever and smart warrior, you can also use your small body against your enemy's. I hope you pass on all you know onto Skypaw. You toured the territory with your mentor and saw nothing really. You went back to camp very tired.

What do you do?

Go to Fresh-kill pile (part 5)

Flop down in your nest (part 6)

Part 5

----------Part 5----------

You feel like your starving so you pad tiredly towards the fresh-kill pile. You flopped down and grabbed a plump rabbit. It looked like the elders and queen had already eaten so you started to take a bite when you heard a yowl. "Shadowclan, attack!"Your spring up, despite your tiredness, you felt excited... sorta. You realised you hadn't have any training and you just became an apprentice. Your first instinct was to hide in the back of the nursery, but then you reminded yourself you were a apprentice! A new one that knows nothing about battles. Said a voice in the back of his head. You couldn't choose what to do. You fainted. You woke up in the medicine cat den. "Y/N your awake!" Exclaimed Roseflower. "What happened?" You asked. "Well, Shadowclan attacked and took one of Sunstar's lives." She explained. "Oh, no! That's horrible!" Roseflower nodded, and then said "Do you hurt anywhere?" You shake your head. "Okay, tell me if you ever need poppy seeds."You pad towards you den and you fell fast asleep.

Go to part 8

Part 6

----------Part 6----------

You feel like you could use some rest because you had just walked around the territory with Daisybloom, your mentor. You flop down in your nest and close your eyes quickly falling asleep.

--------Two minutes later----------

"Shadowclan attack!" Yowled a ct from outside camp. You spring up tensing your muscles. A large group of cats barge though the clearing. You immediately know who they are. "Shadowclan!" You gasped. You then hissed. "I'll show those frog-eaters!" Then a voice in the back of your head said something NOT helpful.But you don't know how to fight... you haven't even started battle training... you'll die. You still run into battle despite the unhelpful thoughts, only to fall over and bonk your head... HARD.You wake up to find yourself in the medicine cat den with Roseflower. "Y/N your awake!" She exclaims. "What happened?" You ask "Well, Shadowclan attacked and you fell. You didn't miss anything though. They just attacked. Probably a border dispute." She replied. Sigh"Well you go back to your den okay? Bye!" You walked away. You reached your den and flopped down and fell fast asleep.

Go to part 8

A/N Now I think we're gonna do more life-deciding choices. :)

Part 7

----------Part 7----------

You wake up, the next day, in your den being prodded by Skypaw. "Get up Mr. Lazy!" She prodded you harder now. "What did Daisybloom say? DON'T POKE THE BADGER!" You said. "Mmm, okay... but we have training!"You weren't listening but when you heard "training" you got up and peeked out of your den. "Eek, I think were late for training!" You quietly padded out of the den padded over to Daisybloom and Onefoot with Skypaw. "Okay, now that were all here lets do battle training. You WERE going to do hunting, but Shadowclan attack and all that stuff. M'kay?"You nodded. "Alright, lets go!"

What do you do?

Go with your mentor (part 9)

Blow off training (part 10)

A/N: Sorry chapters are short, I wrote this on a Kindle so it seemed like a lot more. Anyways, sorry for the short chapters and... yeah.

Part 8

You wake up the next day being prodded by Skypaw. "Get up Mr. Lazy!" She prodded you harder now. "What did Daisybloom say? DON'T POKE THE BADGER!" You said. "Mmm, okay... but we have training!" You weren't listening but when you heard 'training' you jumped up peeked out of the apprentice's den. "Eek, I think we are late for training." A/N: Sorry it wasn't here before! Hope you're having a good day/ night/whenever.

Part 9

----------Part 9----------

"Yay! Battle training!" You exclaim. You pad over to a small clearing where you would do your practising for the day. "This is where we will be doing our practising for part of today, after that you can go to the fresh-kill pile." Your mentor inform you and your brother. "Y/N, Skypaw, I will need you to try and fight each other. Claws sheathed!" (sheathed means in. I think...) "Now we wont give you any advice until AFTER you try. We will correct you after." Said Onefoot. "Okay...3...2...1! Go!!!" You sprang at Skypaw and swiped at his face, whacking his nose. "Owy-wowy!" He leaped at you and toppled you over pinning you to the ground. You pretended to be defeated and went limp. "Ha ha! Take that Y/N!" You immediately sprang up and pinned Skypaw to the ground. Skypaw tried to break free but you held her down. "Good job Y/N!" Congratulated your mentor. "Where'd you learn that trick?" Asked Skypaw's mentor. "I saw a warrior do it." You said proud of yourself. "You get first pick from the fresh kill pile!" Onefoot exclaims. Skypaw muttered something under her breath.You ask Skypaw whats wrong and she snapped at you and stomped away. What do you do?Follow him (part 11)otDon't follow him (part 12)

A/N: Thank you for 15 views!

Part 10

----------part 10----------

You decide to blow off training and go run grab a rabbit and start munching on it. "Y/N! Get here right now!" Your mother yelled over to you. "Y/N! Your being a brat! Your NOT allowed prey right now! You've broken the warrior code!" Your mother scolds you. "So? I don't care." With that you run off in a random direction. You end up sprinting into an unknown territory. It smells awfully familiar... Thunderclan! You immediately get surrounded by a patrol of Thunderclan cats. Why didn't I smell them?! You scold yourself "Who are you? What do you want with Thunderclan?"

What do you do?

Unsheathe your claws and aggressively state your name (part 13)

Normally say your name (part 14)

Part 11

----------Part 11----------

You decide to follow Skypaw, he was close to the Thunderclan border sulking. "Um, hi, Skypaw. Are you okay?" You ask. "Yes, Y/N! I'm fine!" She snapped. "Would you like to go back to camp with me?" You asked Skypaw. "No! Go away! I just want to be alone!" He mumbled something under his breath. You go back to camp slightly disappointed. You flop down into your den and sigh.

(Go to part 12 at the 'Part 12 part')

A/N: This is probably the second shortest chapter in the book.

Part 12

WARNING: VERY CONFUSING.

----------Part 12----------

You decide not to bug her and you go with your mentor. "Good job, Y/N!" Onefoot praised.

----------Part 12 part----------

-------- (for people who read part 11 ------

(Don't read the parts in |, if you chose 12 okay?) | You woke up and padded over to the fresh kill pile. | (Read this too!)"Hey, Y/N?" Asked Daisybloom. "Yes, mother?" You said. "Do you know where Skypaw went?" ((You can read this if you chose 12.)

You told Daisybloom that she went onto the moor. "Okay, well that's okay, she's probably hunting." She took you to the fresh kill pile and grabbed a rabbit and took a bite "Ooh! I was going to ask you if you wanted to share." She remembered. "Okay!" After you finished eating you sat in your nest and played with your tail. 'Urgh.' You thought and went out onto the moor. You ran around for a while and laid down for a moment. You actually fell asleep! It was moon high and you ran back to camp and went to your nest. You woke up the next morning. Your mentor was calling your name. And, for some reason, Briarpaw was too.

What do you do?

Go to your mentor (part 15)

Go to Briarpaw (part 16)

A/N: Sorry for not posting last week! I have officially decided that I will post Wednesday's and Friday's. Anyways, thank you for 68 reads!

Part 13

----------Part 13----------

You growled and hissed at the Thunderclan mange-pelts. You unsheathed your claws. "My name is Y/N, and I advise you back off." You growl. "Ha! Do you REALLY THINK you can beat a WHOLE patrol of warriors? Like really? A apprentice versus a patrol. Ha HA!" Laughed a warrior. "Yes I do think that, BUT... I WONT shred you IF you let me pass, like a good little kit." You cut the Thunder clan warrior's nose. "Why you little flea-pelt!" He aimed an attack to slash your Face but before he could Vinestar stopped him. "We don't hurt apprentices, Pitleg. You snorted. "Lets take him home. I can tell he's from Windclan. Lets go apprentice." He flicked his tail as a sign to follow him. You followed him but instead of walking in silence you tried to trip him and run. "Oof!" You ran. As it turns out, there was a hole in the ground. You fell into the hole with a big THUD. (Btw, it was deep hole.) You run deeper into the cave, chest heaving. "Vinestar, what do we do?" You heard one of the warriors said. You ran forwards as much as you could until you couldn't hear the warrior's chatting and stuff. You eventually stopped at a tunnel that went three ways. Left, right, and middle.

What do you do?

Right (part 18)

Middle (part 19)

Part 14

----------Part 14----------

"Um, I'm, uh, Y/N. I didn't mean to trespass, and, uh, yeah." You scolded yourself 'What a sentence!' You thought sarcastically 'I'm doomed!' The warrior's looked at each other. "Get back to your clan, little apprentice!" You nodded and ran.

A/N: You know how I said Part 7 would be the shortest? Well, this one is.

Part 15

----------Part 15----------

You decide that you should go to your mentor. You shot an apologising glance at Briarpaw. He just nodded and padded away."Yes, Daisybloom?" You asked. "I need you to do the elders ticks for me." You nod and head to the elders den. You padded into the elders den (after getting a stick with bile on it) and started getting off the elders ticks. "Hey, Y/N, want to hear a story?" Said Fallingpool, the oldest cat in the camp. "Sure!" You said gladly. "Okay then, once when I was a new warrior..."Fallingpool told her story, and you got the ticks. After you finished the elders ticks, you looked for Briarpaw. After a while of searching, you found him. "Hi! You wanted to tell me something, right?" You asked "Yeah, uh, um, I was gonna ask if you wanted to go hunt with me." He said. Go to part 20

Part 16

----------Part 16----------

"Um, one second, Daisybloom!" You call. You gives you a stern look.

Go to part 15

A/N: Sorry, but you know, it can't ALWAYS go your way. Also, the reason why I posted another chapter is because this one is VERY short, so I kinda felt bad. But, good news, 100+ reads! :)

Part 17

----------Part 17----------

You decide to go left and follow that path. 'Left is always right. Left is right and right is wrong.'You thought You continue on that path until you slip. You get up and, without being care slip again. But this time you fall into a DEEP hole. Seriously injured, no one ever found you so you died. :)

-You are dead-

A/N: Told you you could die.

Part 18

----------Part 18----------

You decide to go right because right is right, right? Usually. 'Right is might, right is might...' You follow the right path until a dead end. "UGHHH, ITS A DEAD END". You groaned. You decided to go back to the three way tunnel to decide a different way to go. You walked all the way back and rested for a second.

What do you do?

or

Middle (part 19)

Part 19

----------Part 19----------

'Hmm, the middle is probably a dead end but, you know, I could probably just go back.' You thought. You pad down the middle tunnel meeting a FEW (When I say 'few' i mean, like, a trillion) obstacles. "Yeesh, this is so longgggg!"

You still continue though. You hear a rock fall and get startled. You run, continue through the tunnel and slow down. You see a little bit of light so you get super excited and sprint at full speed. (You don't die in this one)

"Yes!! Hooray!!!!!" You kept going straight and went up a slope out of the underground.

"Blerg! So bright!" Your eyes adjust to the light and you find yourself in Shadowclan territory.

"Oh. My. STARCLAN. I'm on the other side of the lake!!!!"

What do you do?

Find you way home (part 21)

Or

Wait for a patrol (part 22)

Part 20

----------Part 20----------

You and Briarpaw tell your mentors that your going hunting and you'll be back soon.

You head onto the moorland to try to catch a few rabbits, you and Briarpaw searched the moor a little bit before spotting a rabbit. You chase after it and try to kill it but it gets away.

"Aww. We totally could've got that." Briarpaw said. After an hour or so trying to catch some prey, you give up.

----------Super short TimeSkip----------

You are back at camp when Roseflower came up to you. "Uh, Y/N? Can you, uh, come into the medicine den?" She said. "Sure." You replied.

"I, uh, received a, uh, PROPHECY. And, uh, I thinks it about you." Roseflower said

She took a deep breath

"There will be a young warrior with a P/C pelt.

That will save the moor from destruction.

But if the chosen cat fails to fulfil the prophecy, than the destruction will be dealt." Roseflower repeated.

"Um, uh, yeah... Well, um, bye."

Part 21

----------Part 21----------

You decide it'd be best if you headed home yourself. 'Hmm, I guess I will be in less trouble then.' You thought.

----------Timeskip----------

You've just reached camp and, clumsily (it's a wonder they didn't notice), snuck into camp.

You get to the apprentices den and while walking in Sunstar calls you with Daisybloom.

"Arggggggggg." You groan.

You walk over toward the leaders den where Sunstar and Daisybloom were sitting. "Yes, Sunstar?" You said. "I noticed you blew off training today... Would you like to say anything about that?" Sunstar said. "Um... Yes? I blew off training because of..." 'THINK!!! OH NO!!!' And boom. An idea came to mind. "Because I heard a kit wail." You said confidently. They both gasped. "Hmm, okay well, that doesn't explain why you grabbed prey before you ran off." Sunstar pointed out. "Oh, that cuz' I didnt think I could ran across the moor on a empty belly." You explain, taking all the lies from the top of your head. "Daisybloom, what do you think?" Sunstar asked your mother.

"Let me ask a question." Said Daisybloom said. "Okay," Sunstar replied. "What did the kit look like and who was the mother?" Asked Daisybloom. 'ERMMMM... WHAT DID IT LOOK LIKE????? TABBY!!!! BLACK TABBY! GREEN EYES!' "It was a black tabby with green eyes. She-cat." You answered. "And her mother was named... Fern." You added.

"Hmm, I think he/she's telling the truth." Said Daisybloom. "Hmm, fine." Sunstar sighed. "Okay, we will not punish you." Sunstar said. Daisybloom nodded. "You may leave Y/N." You padded out of the den heart pounding. You walk over to your den when Briarpaw calls you over. 'ERGGGG! NOOO!' You thought

You finally get into your den and fall fast asleep.

You wake up in a starry meadow. You realise where you are. This must be Starclan!' You thought enthusiastically.

A scene started to play, blood and dead cats and a whole bunch of destruction and chaos.

"Wait! No!" You notice Briarpaws body on the ground right at your paw... Skypaw... "NOOO!!"

'There will be a young warrior with a P/C pelt,

That will save the moor from destruction.

But if the chosen cat fails to fufill the prophecy,

The destruction will be dealt.'

A/N: I'd hate whoever comes up with prophecies, because I'm not very good at it.

Also, I wanted to ask if anyone plays Flightrising (if you make an account put in the 'If someone reffered you' put Echoleaf123!!!), It's really fun.

ANYWAYS, this was probably the longest chapter I have written so far. The chapters will be edited (maybe) when I finish the C.Y.O.S*

I think you know who the bad guy is now. ;)

* C.Y.O.S means Choose You Own Story

Part 22

----------Part 22----------

You decide to wait for a patrol.

'A patrol HAS to be here soon.' You thought.

Just then the bushes were rustling and a cat and three others were behind him.

"What are you doing here, measly Windclan apprentice?!" Snarled the cat in front.

"I'm, uh, Y/N... What's yours...? You added awkwardly. The cat snorted. "Dustmane, now get out of here!" Dustmane said. You turned away and ran. The Shadowclan cat chased after you. You ran as fast as you could.

'Good thing I'm not a Riverclan warrior!'

(Pretty sure Riverclan are the slowest warriors)

You reach the Shadowclan border and run towards it. Just then, the same patrol stopped you. Dustmane sprung at you and swiped your nose. You clumsily swiped back.

"Ha! Think you can win, kit?" Dustmane snarled. In anger, you jumped onto his back and started clawing. He shook you off and pinned you down. You managed to get your front paws unstuck.

What do you do?

Claw Dustmanes belly (part 25)

Or

Claw his throat (part 26)

Part 23

----------Part 23----------

You walk out of the medicine cat den and really want to brag to everybody that your in a prophecy.. You walk over to Skypaw (Where'd she come from?) and say "Hey Skypaw! I'm in a prophecy! Yay!"

"Whoa, whoa, whoa! Not here!" Skypaw lead you away from camp. You were heading towards a hole. You repeated the prophecy to Skypaw and bragged about it a lot.

You sat down by the hole.

"Repeat it again, please." He asked "Okay!" You replied eagerly

""There will be a young warrior with a P/C pelt

That will save the moor from destruction

But if the chosen cat fails to fulfil the prophecy

The destruction will be dealt."'

"Scary! But not as scary as this!!" Skypaw pushed you into the hole.

-You died*-

*But wait, there's more!

The clans grieve for you after a while, slowly Skypaw recruited more cats, after she got around five cats on her side.

Then she attacked.

Long story short, Skypaw took over Windclan and advance to Riverclan, then Thunderclan, and finally Shadowclan. Soon after some cats left the clans to be loners and rogues. Others died trying to defeat Skypaw

(Now known as Skystar) in a battle.

Skystars "clan" died off quickly until the clans disappeared completely.

-Game over (I guess?)-

Part 24

----------Part 24----------

You decide to keep quiet. 'Hmm, Sunstar probably already knows, so... Yeah. I guess.'

You see Sunstar getting onto the Highledge.

Before you could think of it any more, Sunstar calls a clan meeting.

"Let all cats old enough to run across the moor* join here beneath the Highledge for a clan meeting!" Yowled Sunstar.

"As you may know, the gathering is tonight,-"

'Oh yeah! I forgot!' you thought.'

"-So I will select some cats to go with me."

Sunstar said. "Ratfur, Swanfur, Daisybloom, Onefoot, Redfoot, Briarpaw, Skypaw, and Y/N."

You squealed. 'Hooray! I got chosen for the gathering!!!' You thought excitedly.

"We will be there at moon high. Now get rested.

Meeting dismissed!" Sunstars voice rang across the clearing. There was lots of excited muttering.

'You should get rest' you thought

What do you do?

Go to sleep (part 27)

Or

Stay up (part 28)

A/N *Is that right?

Part 25

----------Part 25----------

You figure that if you claw his belly you could escape. 'Here goes nothing.'

You slash his face and start clawing at his belly.

He fell of but jumped back on you, you wriggled from underneath him and fled

Go to part 29

A/N: Sorry for the short chapters!

Part 26

-

----------Part 26----------

You go for the throat 'I hope this works. But I hope I don't hurt him'

You thought. You shit Dustmane's face and swiped at his throat. Dustmane fell off of you and got up and bolted back Into your territory. The remaining patrol members chased you but stopped at the border. "Bye!" You said and scrambled off

----------Timeskip----------

You get back to camp to be scolded by Daisybloom and Earthstone. (Plus one leader.)

"Rant! Rave! Blah. Blah! Scold!" Said Daisybloom

"Scold, scold! Blah, blah!" Said Earthstone.

"Disappointed! Scold! Blah, blah! Rave! Rant! You shall be punished! Warrior code! You broke! Scold!" Sunstar said. You walked over to your den and moped for a while before falling to sleep. You wake up to a clan meeting.

"All cats old enough to catch their own prey join here beneath the Highledge for a clan meeting!" You had totally forgot

'Oh yeah! I hope I go!'

"As some of you may know, the gathering is tonight so I will select some cats to go.

Swanfur, Ratfur, Daisybloom, Redfoot, Onefoot, and Skypaw and Briarpaw." Sunstar announced "Now get some rest. Meeting dismissed!" Sunstars voice rang across the clearing. There were lots of excited murmurs around the clearing.

Part 27

----------Part 27----------

You went to sleep. You were being prodded by a cat when you woke up.

"Noooo! Just five more minutes!" You groaned.

"Follow me, apprentice." Said the cat.

"Urf, fine." You got up and followed the mysterious cat behind a boulder far away from camp. 'Why are we here?' You thought tiredly.

"Stand here please."

"Why?"

"Because."

"Because why?"

"Because I need you to stand here!"

"Uh, why?"

Sigh The cat walked over the boulder and pushed it on top of you. "Help!" You yowled.

You could finally make out some of the details of the cat. "Onefoot?" You gasped. "Mwa-ha-ha-ha-ha-ha-haaaaaa!!!!" She laughed.

-You died-

Part 28

----------Part 28----------

You stay up. 'Woot woot!! Yessss!!' You thought

'My first gathering!!! Yeah!" You stay up for hours when a cat comes in. You pretended to be asleep.

"You! Wake up!" Said the mysterious cat.

You pretended to wake up. "Huma-huma?"

"Follow me, apprentice."

You followed the cat onto the moor and in front of an overhanging rock with a boulder on it.

"Stand here."

"Okay."

They went behind the boulder and pushed it.

You dodged it and tried to make out some details. 'Onefoot! That's Onefoot!' You ran.

----------ShortTimeSkip----------

You are back at camp. You have two options.

You could either get Sunstar or hide in your den.

What do you do?

Tell Sunstar (part 30)

Or

Hide in your den (part 31)

A/N: Hello, sorry I missed Wednesday, I probably wont be updating on Wednesdays and Fridays anymore. I will post twice a week (so whenever.)

Part 29

----------Part 29----------

You grumbled and padded over to your den and fell asleep. You woke up when the cat came in and it looked like Onefoot. "Onefoot?" You asked. "Um, yes?" Onefoot replied. "Why are you here? You ask.

"Im, uh, getting Skypaw and Briarpaw up for the, uh, gathering." She replied

"But the gathering isn't until moonhigh."

"Erm, oh, well uh, okay." Onefoot then left.

Onefoot then came back and peeked in the apprentice den carrying some berries.

"Roseflower told me to give these to you."

You couldn't make out what they were other than that they were berries so you were suspicious.

What do you do?

Eat the berries (go to part 32)

Or

Refuse to eat them (go to part 33)

Part 30

----------Part 30----------

"Sunstar! Sunstar!" You called. Sunstar clambered out of his den and looked around the clearing. "Ah! Y/N! Why aren't you sleeping? The gathering hasn't started yet!" He paused. "Oh right, you're not going..."

"Yes, yes, I know. But Onefoot tried to kill me!"

Sunstar looked surprised for a moment but then he changed his expression to seriousness.

You then heard a ruffle in the warriors den. "You shouldn't lie about things like that, Y/N.

I bet she's in her den sleeping right now."

Onefoot then came out of the den looking sleepy. "What? B-but, but she tried to kill me! She tried to push a boulder on top of me!"

"Y/N, I'm sorry but you can't lie like that, you are officially exiled."

-You have been exiled-

A/N: You're probably thinking, 'That's extremely rash.' But, I really, really, wanted to have an ending where Y/N gets exiled. Saw-ree. Also, I'm posting the rest of the chapters! Yay... sorta.

Part 31

----------Part 31----------

'Gotta hide! Gotta hide!' You thought heart pounding. You flung into the apprentice's den and hid in your nest. "Oh, Y/N..... Come out come out wherever you areeee..." Onefoot said.

She looked at your nest and spotted you. "There you are..." She lifted her paw to deliver the death blow. "Hahahahahahah!!!!"

Just then Briarpaw woke up and tackled Onefoot to the ground.

Soon a warrior came in to see what was going on just before the gathering. "Onefoot was going to kill Y/N!"

"That's right! And I'm going to kill you too!" The warrior, which was apparently Spiderfur, fended off Onefoot and stalled until Sunstar had woken. And later Skypaw after being rightfully accused (With not to mention witnesses) exiled.

----------13 moons later----------

You are now a warrior climbing the ranks.

"Hey Y/N?" Asked Briarheart "Remember when you fought Onefoot and she got exiled?" You nodded "Yeah, that was... scary."

"I wonder what happened to Skypaw?" Briarheart wondered out loud. "Some cats say she was driven out and others say she was killed." You nodded once more.

"Mmm, yeah. I heard she escaped to the twolegs and is plotting revenge." You told Briarheart. "Maybe." Briarheart mumbled.

-You win-

A/N: Yay, you won! Sorry for the lame ending, but... CELEBRATION TIME!!! Bluestar, hit the lights! Room turns into a giant party room.

Y/N: WHOOOOOOOOO

4 hours later...

The End

Part 32

—----------Part 32----------

"But I'm not sick." You said, confused

"Roseflower said you have to."

You sighed. "Okay." You ate one of the berries and then Onefoot ran out of the den. 'I wonder where she's go-' You started choking and thrashing around. Briarpaw woke up and gasped.

"Y/N! No! I'm going to get Roseflower!"

Briarpaw dashed out of the den and shortly came back with Roseflower. By then you had already died. The clan mourned for you and blah blah blah blah blah blah blah and one more blah.

-You died-

A/N: Tooooooooo late! Sorry folks, but you'll have to restart now, soooooo, yeah! 8D

Part 33

----------Part 33----------

"Let's go outside the den first." She picked up the berries and went out of the den. You followed Onefoot carefully out of the den.

"Well, eat up!" Onefoot said.

"No." You said blankly. "I will not eat them without knowing what they are and without knowing rather if or if not Roseflower actually wanted me to eat them."

"They are Juniper berries and Roseflower told me to give them to you." Onefoot said

"Hmmm, I don't trust you..." You said quietly, glancing suspiciously at the berries. You got up and cut the berry right in half. 'Death berries!' You thought. "Um, Roseflower gave me these, so she must have tried to kill you and pin the blame on me!" Onefoot said.

Onefoot paused. "Um, I'll just leave." Onfoot turned to go to her den and after a few steps she turned around and sprang at you. "If you won't eat them I will just have to feed them to you myself!" You yelped in surprise. You clawed at her back. 'This is tiring.' You thought.

Briarpaw was stirring in his sleep. You could still see the inside of the apprentice's den still.

"Briarpaw!" You tried to yell, but Onefoot had already put her paw over your mouth, muffling your meow for help. Fortunately, Briarpaw had woken up. Briarpaw helped to you fight Onefoot, when you defeated her (don't ask how, they just did, okay?) Spiderfur barged in. "What happened here?" He asked.

"Uhm, well," Briarpaw told Spiderfur about how Onefoot tried to kill Y/N. They went to Sunstar and repeated their story.

Special A/N

Thank you so much for sticking to the end with this book, it means a lot to me. I hope you enjoyed it as much as I did (which I think it's readable so that's fine). Sorry it's quite short though. Also the reason why I decided to just finish it now was because I was forgetting to update and didn't want to accidentally do that again. Thank you again for reading this book and I hope you have a wonderful day!
